Blank's Coffee

The only complaint we ever heard of Blank's Coffee was made by a boarding-house keeper. She said Blank's Coffees were so much better that her boarders drank too much. Even when you consider that "Faust Blend," Blank's best coffee, costs less than 1 cent per cup, it costs little more to have the best than the poorest coffee. Blank's other brands of coffee are as good proportionately as Faust Blend. We keep them.

FATAL STRIKE RIOT IN SAN ANTONIO.

San Antonio, Tex., November 30.—In a melee here today between union men and their friends and non union employees of the Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone company, two men lost their lives and four others were wounded. It was the first bloodshed of the telephone strike, which was inaugurated November 3. The dead:

William Lacey, a policeman.
O. D. Blanton, striker.

Wounded:
Martin Wright, president of Electrical Workers' union; shot in left arm.
Sandy Smith, employee of telephone company; wounded on head.

Two others whose names are unobtainable.

The shooting occurred in Robinson's livery stable on St. Mary's street, only a short distance from the telephone exchange. Nearly Thanksgiving services were being celebrated in the Travis Park Methodist church. Smith did all the shooting. This morning, in company with other employees of the company, he started out to repair broken wires. The men had police protection. The party returned to the exchange shortly after 11 o'clock. At 11:20 Smith emerged from the exchange and started to climb a pole on the opposite side of the street. While ascending the pole a crowd of men saw him and began jeering.

Some were throwing stones after which he was hit. Robinson stable to escape in the car. The car followed. The car was in the stable. Shortly after the car was shot at. Lacey was the first victim; the second shot grazed Wright's chest and entered the left arm. The last shot struck Blanton.

Policeman Espinosa was in the stable at the time but claims that he saw none of the shots fired. Lacey died a few minutes after the shooting occurred. He leaves a wife and four children and was just serving his second day as a regular policeman. The shooting caused a great deal of excitement through wild rumors which flew about shortly after the affair. Smith and one of the strikers were placed in jail. There are no indications of a mob tonight, although for a time this afternoon matters bore a stormy appearance.

Mr. Phillip

Was an ordinary mortal few weeks ago, but since he is trying to convert the corn market in Chicago, they call him King Phillip; he is trying to do with corn what Joe Letter tried with wheat; if he should succeed King Phillip will "fill-up" his pocketbook considerably and make the short bank accounts much "lighter" and that was more than Letter accomplished. Cornering a market does not mean simply "A Good" a bushel of Phillip would not give his "asset" to that—so you may look for "A Good" corn prices. In the meantime, we have a large stock of corn on the corner of Pearl and Fannin, which we can sell you at 36 cts per bushel.
